

CLAHRC for Birmingham & Black Country

Nathalie Maillard, Programme Manager

Collaborations for Leadership in Applied Health Research and Care

A review of
UK health research funding

Sir David Cooksey
December 2006

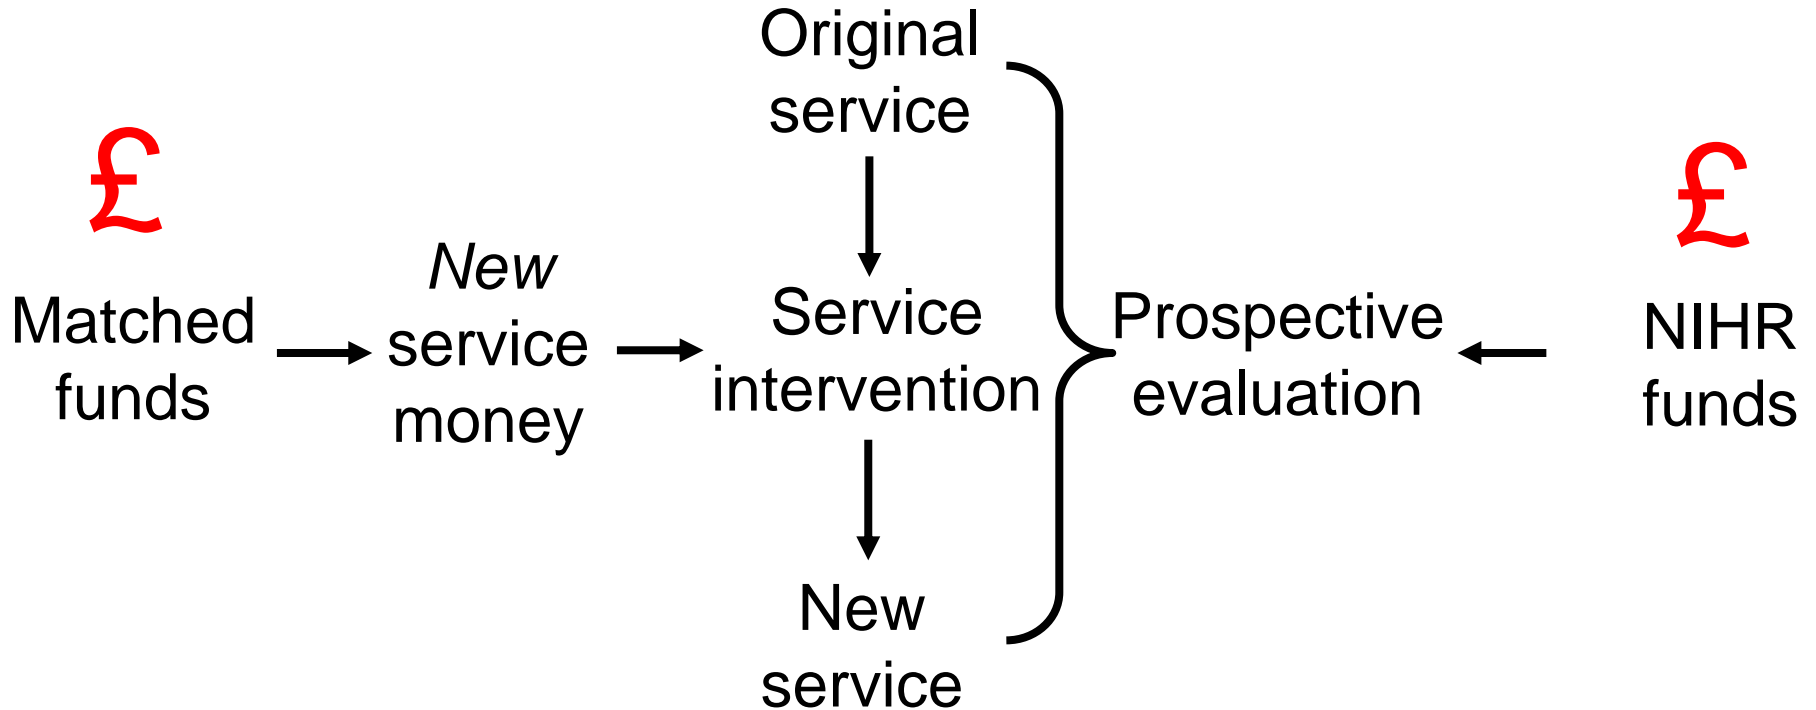

“Need to create a research friendly culture in NHS”

“A more positive culture of innovation to disseminate best practice beyond existing NHS ‘islands of excellence’”

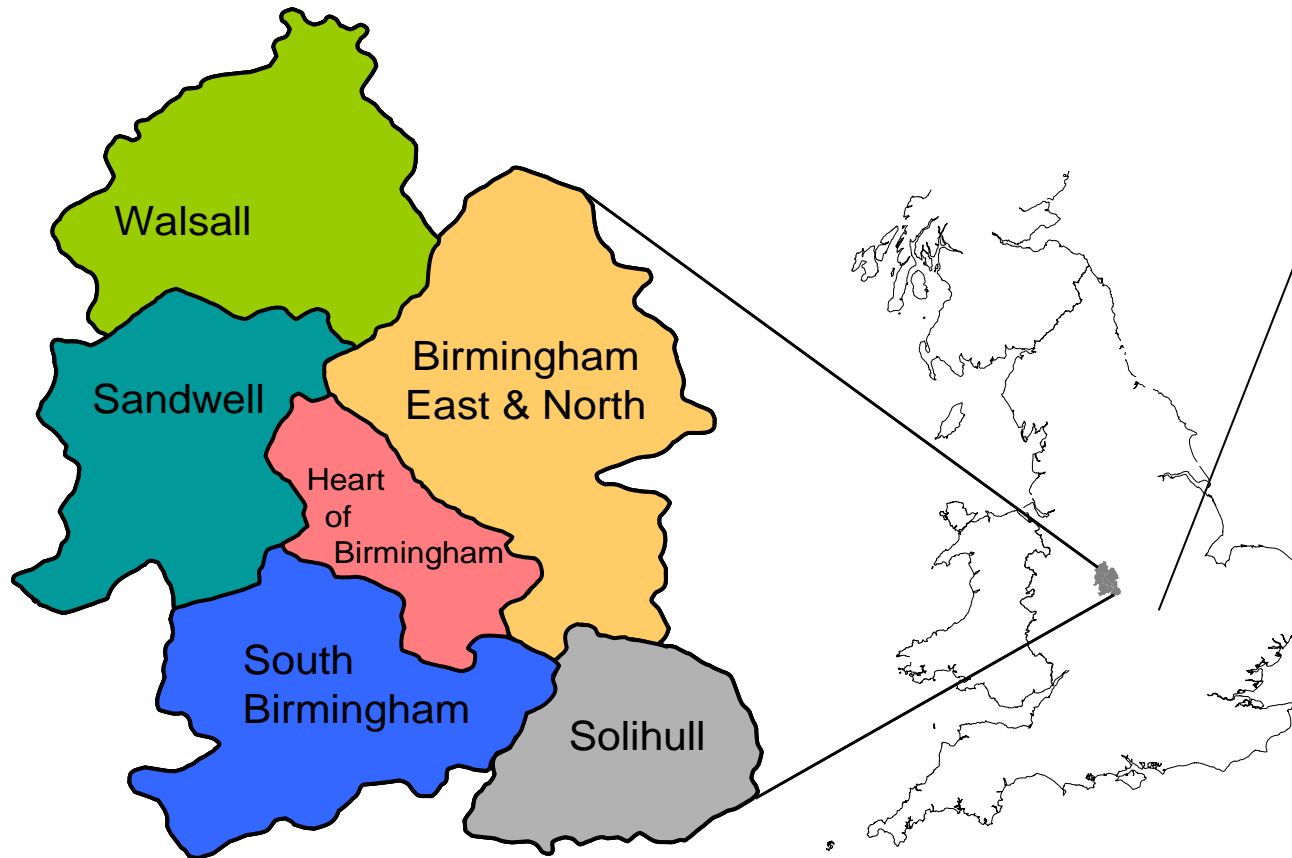

Enabling the NHS to be a more effective partner in the translation of health research into routine practice

Our CLAHRC Model

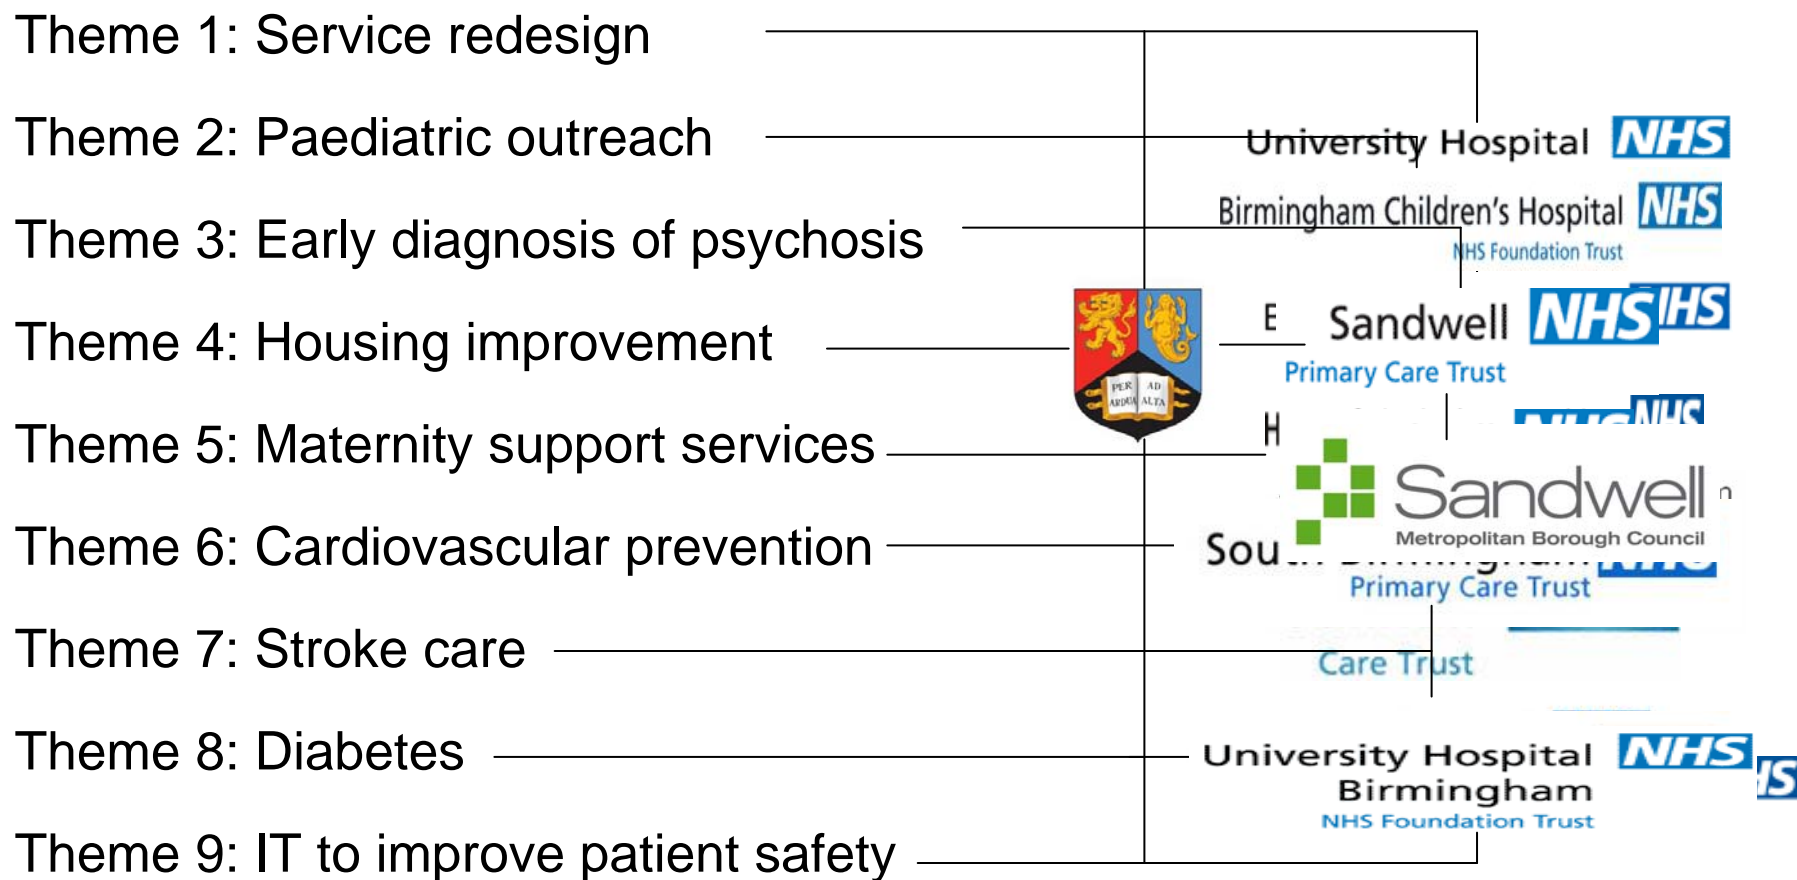

CLAHRC for Birmingham and Black Country

- Leeds
- South Yorkshire
- Manchester
- Nottinghamshire
- Leicester
- Cambridge
- NW London
- Peninsula

Partners

Mixed Methods

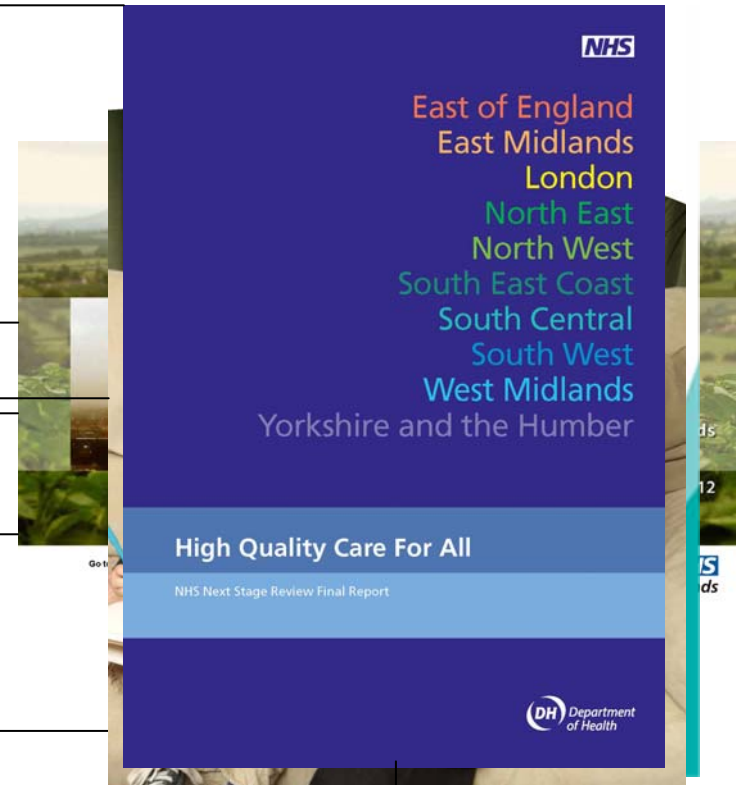

- Theme 1: Service redesign
- Theme 2: Paediatric outreach
- Theme 3: Early diagnosis of psychosis
- Theme 4: Housing improvement
- Theme 5: Maternity support services
- Theme 6: Cardiovascular prevention
- Theme 7: Stroke care
- Theme 8: Diabetes
- Theme 9: IT to improve patient safety

Epistemological, Quantitative Health
Services Research

Our Priorities

- Theme 1: Service redesign
- Theme 2: Paediatric outreach
- Theme 3: Early diagnosis of psychosis
- Theme 4: Housing improvement
- Theme 5: Maternity support services
- Theme 6: Cardiovascular prevention
- Theme 7: Stroke care
- Theme 8: Diabetes
- Theme 9: IT to improve patient safety

“Creating a research friendly culture in the NHS”

CLAHRC for Birmingham and Black Country

1st Annual

Dissemination Conference

Innovation: the new revolution in the NHS in Birmingham and Black Country

27th November 2009; 12.30 onwards

All welcome!

www.clahrc-bbc.nihr.ac.uk

Nathalie Maillard

n.c.maillard@bham.ac.uk

0121 414 2634

